

Abstract:

This paper will explore the about the political strategy managed by Saudi Arabia towards the declining of world oil prices in 2014, why the decline in world oil prices giving an impact to their policy in Middle East especially Saudi Arabia and how they can survive even get rid of it and how to maintain this kind of problem. This research is addressed to some important elements, especially the policy makers to balancing the economic stability, and also for the OPEC itself.

Keywords: Saudi Arabia, political strategy, economic stability, world oil prices, decline, OPEC