PREFACE

All praises towards Almighty Allah SWT who has given His blessing, spirit, power, and guidance to finish my undergraduate thesis. Sholawat and salam towards the Prophet Muhammad SAW who has brought us from the darkness to the lightness. Finally, I have successfully accomplished my undergraduate thesis entitled “The Strategy of Bersih 2.0 to Realize The Good Governance in Malaysia”.

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my parent for their pray, love, supports, and encouragement to finish this undergraduate thesis. I also would like to say thanks to my brother, who have given his support to me. I would like to say a million thanks to my advisors, Madam Dian Azmawati, S.IP, M.A who have guided me patiently, and always give her support for finishing my undergraduate thesis.

Finally, I realize there are unintended errors in writing this undergraduate thesis. I would be very pleases if all readers to give the suggestion in order to improve its content. Hopefully, this undergraduate thesis will be useful for International Relations studies in the future.

ABSTRACT

The primary aim of this research is to understand the efforts of Bersih 2.0 as the non-governmental organization in Malaysia in dealing with the good governance in Malaysia. In recent years, the issue of reformation of government in Malaysia became popular issues and peoples in Malaysia wants referendum of their Prime Minister. As what he did became anxiety by its society, the alliance of Bersih 2.0 and civil society tried to declare their demands and did the five rallies at different times. The five rallies have the same goals, are to urge the good governance. The research method used was qualitative with descriptive analysis. This research uses the concept of Good Governance by UNDP and theory of Transnational Advocacy Network by Keck and Sikkink. Therefore, the government, civil society, and NGOs are involving with various elements of both state actor and a non-state actor.

Key Word: Bersih 2.0, Good Governance, Malaysia
