QUESTIONS

I. Factors Driving Inter-Regional Cooperation (DOR)

1. According to Mr / Ms is it necessary regional cooperation in the management and development of Dieng Highlands tourism area between Banjarnegara and Wonosobo? If YES why and if NOT why?

Answers :

Of course it need for cooperation in Dieng because Dieng is in one region and is divided into two administrative areas. In one region and different regions of course there must be unification so that it can combine different interests. In addition, although the tourism potential of Banjarnegara Regency is large but currently access mostly through Wonosobo Regency. So there must be development of access and this can not be done alone by the Banjarnegara Regency. Must cooperate with other districts. The problems in tourism development should be done with cooperation between sectors and across districts.

2. According to Mr / Ms, what are the factors driving the existence of work asama region in the management and development of Dieng Plateau tourism area.

Answers :

Potential attractions Dieng Banjarnegara more than attractions Dieng Wonosobo. By the potential of this lot must be maximized in the development. Often people think that Dieng attractions are in Wonosobo. What is the problem because Wonosobo has become a kind of entrance gate for Dieng tourist area. Most tourists do pass through the access in Wonosobo regency because this access is closer and has a panoramic view of the beautiful Dieng mountains. Banjarnegara does have limitations in the access road to Dieng area. In addition to the long distance, the absence of interesting points along the journey make most tourists prefer through access from Wonosobo. Therefore there must be development of access to Dieng so that tourists can choose the desired path considering the narrow road and frequent landslide disaster on access in Wonosobo regency.

In addition to developing existing attractions, Banjarnegara Regency seeks to increase attractions in the area of Dieng by offering packages of tourism activities such as packages kendi (potato dieng) and package purdi (purwaceng dieng). With this package of activities are invited to interact with local culture and enjoying the coldness of Dieng.

The same interest in tourism development where the source of PAD for each region encourages regional cooperation. The hope of regional cooperation can make optimal development of tourism in Dieng.

The limited area in managing the potential also encourages regional cooperation. With regional cooperation, funding in tourism development becomes lighter or at least increases. Tourism development requires substantial funds and the involvement of all sectors and can not be instantly obtained. It takes hard work and cooperation in the management and development.

In addition, with the cooperation of the region can be a place of stakeholder parties related to the development of tourism. Coordination is easier to do with the perpetrators of tourism. Coordination is done in cooperation with the Wonosobo always done though not periodically. Coordination is very important considering the frequent occurrence of problems in the field. With the cooperation of the region is expected to achieve alignment in the development of the region

As far as I know, the cooperation of Dieng is done by letter of agreement. Agreement is still ongoing is the agreement for the entrance fee passage fee poros. Because it is considered good then the agreement continued until 2012. By the regional cooperation in Dieng expected problems of the limitations of the region can be overcome. Tourism area development is more optimal and reduces conflicts that may arise due to different interests and are located in border areas

3. Is the existence of regional cooperation in the management and development of the Dieng Plateau tourism area has been able to increase tourist visits?

Answers :

As far as I know there is no study or linking the increase in regional cooperation with the increase of tourist visits to Dieng. The entrance fee allows practically visitors to enjoy the attractions in Dieng.

II. Support and Constraints of Inter-Regional Cooperation (DUH)

1. What policies did the regional government undertake in the planning, implementation, evaluation, in the development and cooperation of the Dieng Highlands tourist area?

Answers :

The policy on regional cooperation is in line with the RTRW, RPJM and the Strategic Plan we have created. These policies are translated into consensus agreements and cross-regional coordination meetings. For tickets for the allocation of tourism objects in cooperation is the complex of Arjuna temple and Sikidang Crater. Because both of these objects are interesting from the side attractions. A historic relic and a stunning natural phenomenon.

2. How is the support provided by the district government in the regional cooperation of management and development of Dieng Highland tourist area?

Answers :

The Government of Banjarnegara supports the existence of regional cooperation can be seen from the cooperation in the entrance fee passage. In addition it can be seen from the chronology of cooperation ever done. Because it is still coordinative funding support only on the printing of the canal tickets together with Wonosobo regency.

The existing cooperation is done by making the mapping of existing tourism potentials and the identification of regional needs on the sector that has not been cooperated. Our hope because the issue in Dieng not only the tourism sector, other sectors into a sector that can be co-operated. Examples are Environment, infrastructure and access building. With a wide range of sectors, the development of tourism to achieve integration will be easier. This is because the other sectors are closely related to tourism.

The support of stakeholders in the coordination of regional cooperation can be seen in the meetings of both planning and money. From the elements of government, NGOs, Pokdarwis united in the framework of development of Dieng. Eventough this regional cooperation has no institution. and concepts that have not been agreed.

Provincial support is also very large for the development of Dieng. Banjarnegara district thanks for having assistance in tourism development in Dieng. Physical implementation and capacity building of tourism actors conducted by the provincial. In cooperation the provinces also participate in the letter of cooperation agreement of the region.

3. What are the obstacles in the regional cooperation in the tourism area of Dieng Plateau?

Answers :

The obstacles that are still felt for the District Banjarnegara is still a local policy that leads to ego. Tourists often feel uncomfortable about ticketing in Dieng. One of them tickets drawn in Garung Kabupaten Wonosobo. Because not accompanied by explanations they feel they have paid a ticket to enter Dieng area .The ticket is only to cross the access to Dieng by crossing Dieng panorama in every object still withdrawn tickets again. Another obstacle is the lack of integration in Dieng planning. This makes the existence of two different interests and priorities of tourism development.
