

ABSTRAK

This article is aimed to understand Indonesia's strategy in improving economic partnership with Turkey from 2009 to 2017. The author will also discuss the bilateral relation between Indonesia and Turkey, Indonesia-Turkey economic partnership in 2009-2017, and the problems and obstacles in the economic partnership. This article will specifically explain the steps taken by Indonesia in improving its partnership with Turkey. A method used in this research is qualitative, using secondary data collecting. In this article, the author uses a concept of economic diplomacy, including the way and method of economic diplomacy. This will give insights whether the steps taken by Indonesia to improve the economic partnership with Turkey has already based on the concept of economic diplomacy.

Keywords: economic diplomacy, economic partnership, Indonesia, Turkey.