MARITIME SECURITY COOPERATION IN SULU-CELEBES SEA
Wahyu Hidayat Alfaruq
201301510315
wahyualfaruq13@gmail.com

International Relations Department
Faculty of Political and Science
Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta
Jl. Lingkar Selatan, Tamantirto, Kasihan, Bantul, Yogyakarta, 55183

Abstract

This article is about transnational crime happened in Sulu-Celebes Sea particulary the existence of terrorist group in the area. This is also analysing about the roles of the three countries (Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines) to restoring the security and stability in the area. It will start with emphasising the importance of Sulu-Celebes Sea for international trading. Furthermore, it will explain the process of regime formation among the three states in order to create a framework and concept to collaborate in maintaining security and stability in the Sulu-Celebes Sea and examine international regime as an instrument in establishing cooperation.

Keywords: Maritime Security, Transnational Crime, Sulu-Celebes, Indomalphi, Trilateral Cooperation