It can be seen from the percentage of achievement realization of absorption and the percentage of progress activities up to 100%. Secondly, if compared to 2014 to 2017, 2016 is a very good year in terms of percentage of achievements of absorption realization and the percentage of progress activities, although each year the budget is different, 2016 is the highest percentage of successful use of Privileged Fund compared year -the other year. Nevertheless, there are still some problems that need to be improved in the future during the implementation of the Privileged Fund in 2016. These problems include the lack of socialization of government to the community on how to access Privileged Funds, a special relationship between the bureaucrats and the community in approval of the proposal, programs and activities that are considered not able to prosper the public in general.

In other words, the findings in this study prove that the concept of Good Governance, the government has not been able to show the attitude of transparency, accountability and responsiveness to the community, although if see the percentage of absorption and realization of the program has been very good, in fact in the field is not in accordance with the results of the report from the government.
