

ABSTRACT

Turkey became a country with an interest in Qatar's diplomatic conflict that occurred in July 2017. Qatar's diplomatic conflict that caused Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, the United Arab Emirates and Egypt severed diplomatic ties with Qatar and blocked all land, sea and air traffic to country of Qatar. Because Qatar has supported terrorism, it has embraced several terrorist and sectarian groups, which Gulf states have disturbed regional stability, such as the Muslim Brotherhood, ISIS and Al Qaeda. With such allegations, Turkey fully supports Qatar in diplomatic conflicts and on the grounds of wanting to help Qatar in its conflict with Gulf States.
