THE EFFORT OF INTEREST GROUP MPAC (MUSLIM PUBLIC AFFAIR COUNCIL) AGAINST ISLAMOPHOBIA IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AFTER 9/11 TRAGEDY

This research aims to explain and offer insight into the image of Muslims in America. It offers an explanation of how Islamophobia operates in the United States and explains about the efforts of MPAC in the fight against Islamophobia after 9/11 tragedy.

This research is expected to expand the corpus of science and provide additional useful material that can be a source of reference for further research. Especially in terms of the phenomenon of Islamophobia in the United States. As well as outlining the efforts undertaken by the MPAC Islamic organization, which is one of the largest in the United States. It is hoped this will be a catalyst for further research excellence.

Most importantly, the study also aims to arouse public awareness for mutual tolerance of differences, ranging from religious, racial, ethnic to ideological. Ultimately adding insight into the life of a Muslim in a secular State.
