CHAPTER ONE
INTRODUCTION

A. Background

On July 10th 2017, the government of Indonesia issued the Government Regulation-In-Lieu of Law on Civil Society Organization (CSOs) No.2 of 2017 (Perppu Ormas) with the reason that the existence of such organizations which are not in line with the Pancasila and the 1945 Constitution feasibly to endanger national stability.\(^1\) Furthermore, this Perppu has been approved by the House of Representative in the parliament building on October 24th 2017.\(^2\) So, automatically Perppu became law, namely Law No. 16 of 2017.\(^3\) However, in the session of approval, not all political parties agreed to approve this Perppu to be a law.\(^4\) A faction of the Great Indonesia

\(^1\) Pancasila is written in the preamble of 1945 Constitutions and usually called as the Indonesia Philosophy, Panca is lima and Sila is principles, the content of Pancasila are: (1) Belief in One and Only Almighty God; (2) A just and civilized humanity; (3) Unity of Indonesia (4) Democracy led by wisdom in the consultations (the people’s) of representatives, (5) Social justice of all Indonesians.

\(^3\) Government declare the state of emergency while issuance the perppu ormas. According to Article 12 of 1945 Constitution “The President declares the state of emergency. The condition of State of Emergency regulated by law” further article 22 of 1945 Constitution regulated the perppu as follow: (1) In compelling crisis situation the president shall have rights to issuance the government-regulation-in-the lieu of law;(2) The government regulation have to be approved by the parliament (DPR) in its next session;(3) if it (government regulation) not approved, it may revoked.

\(^4\) Because the deliberation of perppu ormas not attained after two hours lobbying off seven political party agree to passed those president regulation in-the-lieu-of law to become law, those fractions among others: Indonesia Democratic Party of Struggle (PDI-P); United development Party (PPP); National Awakening Party (PKB); Golkar Party; Nasdem Party; Democratic Party(Demokrat); People Conscience Party( Hanura) and three other rejects :Prosperous Justice Party(PKS), National Mandate Party (PAN) and Great Indonesia Movement Party(GERINDRA) however, of seven political party, third ask for Revision as well as possible after it enacted, namely: United Development Party (PPP), National Awakening Party (PKB), and Democratic party(Demokrat). Because the disscession is not
Movement Party (GERINDRA), Prosperous Justice Party (PKS), and National Mandate Party (PAN) rejected the Perppu to be enacted as law because the function of the ordinary court is abolished in this law. This is against the principle of a democratic state based on rule of law.\(^5\)

This new law became controversies not only fractions of political parties but also the parliament. A constitutional expert, Yusril Ihza Mahendra argued that several issues of this law against the rule of law and arbitrarily against people rights that are not compatible with democracy and the purpose of reforms. He named it as the decline of democracy.\(^6\) There are problematic provisions in law No.16 of 2017 particularly in the abolishment of judicial function that is feasible to create abusing of the power of government. It is proven by the termination of Hizbut Tahrir, a religious organization through revocation of their legal entity status before the enactment of this law.

However, President Joko Widodo allows the interested party to proceed the case to Court if they disagree with the new law.\(^7\)

Indeed, a question arises, “how to seek justice without trial” which means no due process of law. In fact, Indonesia is a country based on rule of law.\(^8\) Not only to negate the function of the court which is not in line with the 1945 Constitution but also to diminish the role of Civil Society Organizations in nowadays life. This research attempts to evaluate the mechanism of dissolution of CSOs in Law No.16 of 2017. The research also studies on the mechanism of dissolution of CSOs in Turkey as Comparison.
