EXTENDED GRATITUDE

Whitin in page, I would like to extend my gratitude for all forms of supports given to me during my college years. I dedicated this thesis and would like to personally thank:

1. My beloved family, who have been supporting from the beginning until whenever, of course, support is morally and materially. And always take the time to prostrate and plead with Allah SWT for the success and success of each step of their children. I am very grateful to my parents, Mr. Toto Tedjondaru and Mrs. Siti Istinganah, for your love so that now I can be in my current position and be able to finish this lecture well and they always give me strength when I am in a very weak position during this lecture period. I was very lucky to be the son of both my parents and I love them so much that not even a beautiful language can express my love to my parents. And to my brothers and sisters, Tesa Valianti and Naufal Zuhdi Rabbani, I know I am not a good brother to you but here I say that I also love you.
2. Agis Andyani Dewi, a woman who are also never tired of supporting me with all prayers, help, laughter. I say thank you to Allah SWT for bringing it into my life, because of this woman I will be very easy to gather my spirit when I start to break up with everything. Forgive me, I cannot assemble poetic sentences to express my gratitude and express my love for you. Don't ever get tired of support and grabbing each other hand when we are down.
3. Mr. Nofansyah Ibrahim S.IP., M.A. an extraordinary lecture, he is so kind and really help me on doing my undergraduate thesis when I'm about to begin to write down my research. He gave me advice so that I can write down my thesis easier.
4. My best mates ever, Ikrar Bhakti Praja, Wahuda Efandi, Jannatan Firdaus, Wenny Nabila Inayati. Sometimes we fight because of a few small things, but what I know is that you are AJAIB human, who was created by God.

People from cool areas that have cool hearts too. They always give advice to me when I start acting carelessly and who always support me in every good decision I make. This warm friendship made me forget that we are different parents and I even consider them as family. Guys, don't be too serious, let's make our happy day again.

5. Gusti Restu Putra and Adi Wirawan, dudes who always cheer up our rebel day during the undergraduate degree on IPIREL department. Bros who address me when the first day college. Two fucked up persons on the college matter I've ever know hahahaha. I love you guys, let's punch on their ass every person who is blocking our way!
6. Keluarga Mahasiswa Wonosobo-UMY, my little family overseas who always made me feel at home, which always reminded me of my beloved city, Wonosobo. I am very grateful to be met with you in Yogyakarta. Continue to improve your synergy, don't be discouraged, let's live this organization to live and our efforts to establish this family are paid off with the real existence of Wonosobo students on our red campus.
7. Mr & Mrs Kosim, my other parents when I was KKN in Purworejo who always listen when I shared my story, happiness, sadness during my KKN periode and they also support me when I was led my group and raised my hand when I was fucked up. They teach me many things about live and how to survive in every limitedness.
8. Last but not least, every people surround me who always give me never ending support during my undergraduate degree period, I can't mention them all one by one but I do really thank you for all things that you've done to support me.

ABSTRACT

The aim of this research was to identify the reasons why North Korea and South Korea agreed to unite under a united Korean flag at the 2018 Asian Games. With the background of the dark history of these two countries, the unification of South Korea and North Korea is very significant considering These two countries have made peace efforts several times but ended in failure due to various factors, even in 2017 the tension between these two countries had been heated up due to a ballistic missile test conducted by North Korea which was considered to threaten the stability of the South Korean country. The researcher will try to identify why the two countries agreed to appear and compete in one delegation or one flag namely the United Korea flag, the author will identify this issue by using Rational Choice Theory by Graham T. Allison and Concept Soft Power Diplomacy by Joseph Nye Jr.
