

Book Discussion

Adapting International Criminal Justice in Southeast Asia: Beyond the International Criminal Court

Dr. Emma Palmer
(the author, Griffith Law School, Queensland Australia).

MODERATOR:
ZAIN MAULANA, Ph.D
(CEDIS UMY)

TUESDAY, MAY 19 2020
11.00-12.00

ZOOM Meeting id: 885 4613 8451

Password: ICJASEAN

  : Cedis Umy   : cedisumy  : cedis.umy@gmail.com

Recording

Zoom Group Chat

then the Philippines withdraw from the ICC?

From Chloryne Dewi to Everyone:
ok thank you. yes the situation is so contry to tha past

From DIAJENG CHRISTIANI to Everyone:
Do you think other alternative mechanisms such as restorative justice rather than court is more appropriate for asean to advance international criminal justice, in the case of core crimes and the perpetrator are leaders?

From DIAJENG CHRISTIANI to Everyone:
Is there any chance that ICC could possibly exercise its primacy jurisdiction over national courts like the practices of ICTY or ICTR by amending the Rome Statute and replacing its complementarity principle?

To: Emma Palmer (Privately) File ...

Type message here...

Emma Palmer