Dear Zain

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that your paper proposal as per below has been accepted for presentation at the 9th Oceanic Conference on International Studies, to be held from 29 June to 1 July 2020 at The Australian National University in Canberra.

Please note as per the OCIS program structure, proposed papers have been grouped into Panel Discussions based on relevant themes/categories. You will find your panel details attached including other panellists and their papers.

We have been delighted by the immense interest in this year's OCIS, and it is shaping up to be a wonderful social and intellectual event. We have attracted a tremendous mix of scholars, coming from diverse backgrounds and working across a fascinating range of topics. It is testimony to the diversity and dynamism of our community.
