Dedicated for:

I present this thesis to my beloved parents. You devoted your times to bring me up. You told me things that are always imprinted on my memory. This thesis is nothing compare to all what you had given to me. Words could not express how much

"Do you not see how Allāh sets forth a parable? A goodly word is as a goodly tree whose root is firmly fixed, and its branches reach to the sky, giving its fruit at all times, by the Leave of its Lord. And Allāh sets forth parables for mankind in order that they may remember. And the parable of an evil word is that of an evil tree uprooted from the surface of Earth, having no stability."

(QS: Ibrahim: 24-26)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This undergraduate thesis is to fulfill the requirements for the degree of Sarjana Ilmu Politik (S.IP) in the department of International Relations, Faculty of Social and Political Science, University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. This undergraduate thesis tries to elaborate the phenomenon of Westerners who involve in Jihadi Movements in the Western countries, especially in the United States. As might be expected, such phenomenon will give effects on the US strategy on War on Terror. As a matter of fact, the US is not immune from domestic radicalization like many other Western countries. US citizens, natives or immigrants, who join or involved in Jihad both local and abroad are increasing in numbers within recent decade. The US is now entering a new stage on its War on Terror.

Special thanks to everyone who support and give me supervisions in completing this undergraduate thesis:

1. Surwandono, S.Sos., M.Si. as supervisor
2. Prof. Dr. Bambang Cipto, M.A. as examiner I
3. Gendroyono as the Language Consultant
4. Sugeng Rivanto, S.IP, M.Si. as Head of Department
