

ABSTRACT

This research aims to determine how much influence the amount of labor, capital, wages, and long effort towards production craft teak in Ngawi and to determine whether these four factors have the most dominant influence on the production of handicrafts teak in Ngawi. In this study sample of 55 data obtained through interviews and questionnaires to employers craft teak in Ngawi. The analysis tool used is the Multiple Linear Regression Analysis.

Based on the analysis that has been used to get the result that the variable amount of labor, capital, wages positive and significant effect while the old variable effort and no significant negative effect on the production of handicrafts teak in Ngawi. Among the four independent factor on the variable number of workers who heavily influence the production of handicrafts teak in Ngawi.

Keywords : Total Labor, Capital, Wages, Long Efforts, Production, and Industri.