

ABSTRACT

This article is intended to explain why Indonesia Gives referendum for East Timor. The demands of internal factors and external factors that underlie the Indonesian government for policy considerations in resolving the East Timor referendum, seen from internal factors demands of pro-independence group called for freedom, as well as external factors insistence John Howard (the prime minister of Australia).

Keyword : Referendum, Indonesia, East Timor, Australia, Considerations