

CHAPTER III

THE RESEARCH METHOD

1. Type of Research

The type of this research is comparative and qualitative legal research with Universal Declaration of Human Right approach through the regulation especially with the human right perspective of euthanasia's patient in Indonesia and the Netherlands.

2. The Data

This research will used legal material research taken from the learning literatures consist of primary legal material, secondary legal material, tertiary legal material and non legal materials.

- 1) Primary legal material consist of several declarations, as follows:
 - a. Universal Declaration of Human Right
 - b. International Covenant on Civil and Political Right
 - c. Indonesian Penal Code
 - d. Dutch Penal Code
 - e. Law Number 39 Year 1999 concerning Human Right
 - f. Law Number 36 Year 2009 concerning Health
- 2) Secondary materials consist of several document that related with primary legal materials as follows:
 - a. Scientific Journal;
 - b. Books related with euthanasia and human right;
 - c. Seminars paper;

- d. Others document.
- 3) Tertiary legal materials, such as:
- a. Black Laws Dictionary;
 - b. English Dictionary;
 - c. Indonesian Dictionary.
- 4) Non legal materials
- a. Trusted sites internet;
 - b. Others non legal document related with euthanasia and human right.

3. Technique of collecting data

The method of collecting data in this research will be done through library research by literature learning. This research will collect data from reading, analyze, and try to make conclusion from related document such as declaration, laws books, legal journals, and others document related to the main problem as the object of thus research.

4. Data analysis

The data will be analyzed systematically through judicial thinking. Systematically means the research will be analyzed based on international law. Judicial thinking means, it would be connected with the principle of law, convention, and others document related of regulations.