

ABSTRACT

This research has purpose to analyze what are basic sector that to be excellent and what strategy can be extend to increase economic growth in Bantul Regency. This research use the secondary data in early period 5 years from 2010-2014 were obtained from Central Statistical Agency of Daerah Istimewa Yogyakarta Province. The analysis tool in this research is Location Quotient (LQ), Shift Share, Dynamic Location Quotient (DLQ) and Klassen Typologi.

Based on Location Quotient analysis result, Bantul Regency has 6 basic sectors are Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery, Mining and Quarrying, Manufacturing, Electricity and Gas, Construction, and Accomodation and Food Service Activities. Based on result of Shift Share, total revenue of Dij which showed positive value in all economic sectors, Accomodation and Food Service Activities was sector that contribute the greatest value to increase in regional economic.

Based on result of Dynamic Location Quotient, Bantul Regency has sector that all of its has fast growth potensial. And the last, based on result of Klassen Typology, Bantul Regency has sector that progressive and quick growth are Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery, Electricity and Gas, Construction, and Accomodation and Food Service Activities.

Keywords: Gross Regional Domestic Product of Bantul Regency, Location Quotient (LQ), Shift Share, Dynamic Location Quotient (DLQ) and Klassen Typologi.