PREFACE

Assalamu'alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatu

First and foremost, praises and thank to the God, Allah SWT, for His showers of blessings in providing me this opportunity and granting me the capability to proceed successfully through this thesis about the role of WTO in liberalizing trade sector development of Indonesia through Trade Support Program -1, as one of the requirements to complete my study in University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta.

This thesis intends to analyze the reasons of World Trade Organization (WTO) which decided to support the development of Indonesia through Trade Support Program -1, initiated by the European Union. From years ago until now, developing countries still face difficulties in benefiting as they could in trading system globally or in liberalizing their trading sector, Indonesia is one of it as a country with a large number of population in the world. WTO with its special duty to concern on global trade has a must to assist countries that still need support as an International Actor. Some proposal or policy proposal proposed by member countries might accepted or rejected by WTO with particular reasons. This writing focused the reason behind WTO decisions in supporting Indonesia in liberalizing its trade sector the word itself says 'I'm possible'!"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This is a pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to all those who made this thesis possible since this kind of writing is never the work of anyone alone. I would have not finished this thesis without the support of my professional advisor, Bu Grace, the encouragement she gave to keep me going. Thank you for treating me with respect throughout my time of doing this thesis. To you Bu, I give you lots of sincere thanks and respect. Thank you. For Prof. Tulus Warsito and Pak Djumadi, I am simply glad to thank for being one of the students who could be guided by you both, so wise and lovely lecturers.

I have never been expected to find such "awful" friends for the time being. Hasna (a movie girl, independent, you're more than cool!), Wita (I can't say bad words here sorry lol. Or let's just say my makeup routine buddy), you two - ayeay we did it finally! Kresna (a complicated boy ever, but don't get me wrong, you're a great and fun companion!), Jojo (the worst one, but worry not I always need you!), Iman (a sensitive boy but so lovely anyway), Wanda (I should put your name here with forced, the most relaxed person I've ever met, like there are no other people in this world but you, lol!), Galuh (I still don't get why do we call you a mami? But well, you're the girl for the company!), Riffy (you are yourself!), Ghozy (what would I describe you? A plin-plan and sorry boy? Exactly! There is no sorry word without you). A paragraph will never be enough to describe you all, but what can I say is I finally found what I need with these guys, so-open-minded people who cannot be found elsewhere in this country. Kind of exaggerating huh? But that's just it. Thanks B! Edwin (a hard-working guy, true!), Lisa, Ama, Tiara, Adul, Niza, Reza, Rey, Rizkya, Mahar, Danu, Enka are inspiring people I've met in IPIREL, batch 2010. Thank you!

I am indebted to the members of former OC AIESEC UMY with whom I have interacted during the course of my undergraduate studies. Mbak Puput, Jojo, Sinder, Kak Rika, Susilo, Reza, Hasna, Wanda, Novita, we made some of our dreams come true. I would never ever forget the moment we've been through in years, the events we held, a broader networking we built, and many more. Such a very small team but we are awesome I know!

I am also thankful to KOMAHU, the division of Network and Cooperation, and all people there for giving me lots of experience in many ways. Also for all debaters, specially M. G. ... and M. ... (only say Birnie), you two are really inspiring when I was still being one of college debaters, even until now when we are no longer there, thanks for the support in every single things.

For Syaulia, Ivan, Idha, thank you for always accepted my request when I get bored during the months of thesis writing. For Ahmad Muhammad, the one who helped me in making my table of contents, margins or some technical aspects of this thesis (thank you to solve my laziness problem for this stuff, lol).

I am also grateful to have Bu Atik at IPIREL office. She is more likely a good friend (about gossips specially) or even anything I want to share with, I can just go to her. Thank you for your support during these 4 years. For Pak Adde Maruf, my favorite lecturer ever, thank you for letting me help you for the courses, and for being a funny lecturer ever who is never wanted to build a gap with his students, I give you all my respects. Thank you to Bu Ratih and Bu Dian who always trying so-hard to improve IPIRELS quality that I could feel it directly. Thanks to all staffs at International Relations Department for your kindness.

I am also indebted to Dr. Cristoph Behrens, you are not only my lecturer, ex-boss at AIPA, but you are a good friend and a great advisor for life things, who support me when I felt down that I say don't want to write the thesis for some time, and always ask me to complain when a thing goes wrong whenever I am, also for giving me a big chance to build more networking which I realize that is really important for the future, thank you!

I also thank my friends (too many to list here but you know who you are!) for providing support and friendship that I needed. Well, for Lisa Pertot (an Italian best friend of mine), whom I like to share the silliness, gossips, laugh, hard and bored time, I've never expected that you are there to be a great listener and help me to find out what to do for the future, even for what I am not asking for. For Dirk Fallier, a great German guy, for ever being my sit and talk in the past years, who shares anything about life with me, talking about future, and many more. I don't know, I am forever glad for those, thank you!

Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. My immediate family to whom this thesis is dedicated to, has been a constant source of love, concern, support and strength all the time. I am forever indebted to my family, Dad and Mom who sacrificed their lives for my two brothers and myself and provided unconditional love and care. I love them so much, and I would not have made this you for always being my one and only angel, sister and best friend, you two never let me down, especially when I felt I cannot do something, you always said of course I can do anything. Thank you for always makes me happy, and always say YES for my every requests in life when I think that is what I want, I know you always do that for the better of me, you will forever be my inspirations. For my old brother, Kak Ai, thank you for always be a wise-brother ever who always being so patient dealing with me, I know I am such a moody-sister (and thank you to introduced Hook to me through Once Upon A Time then I could be with him when I get bored, lol). Kak Fais, thank you for always support me wherever you are, for being quite talkative in giving me advice whether it is about life, study, or even love. I love you brothers! Three man and a woman whom I really love and care, thank you for giving me chance to be a great daughter and a great sister. I will for sure turn my can'ts into cans and my dreams into plans to make you guys glad to have me till the end of the world
